"Underneath are the Everlasting Arms..." Deut 33:27

March 13, 2007

Dear friend of the Harbour Light,

These are very busy days for ARMS and the Harbour Light! From my perspective, it appears that God is on the move and we must diligently follow. Let me share a few examples.

Jerry and Dawn Walker spent over six months of 2006 in Carriacou filling in for John McPherson at Open Door Baptist Church. Both involved themselves in the work of the Harbour Light and were a source of great blessing to all. I asked Jerry during the summer if he would consider working as the ARMS representative in the United States after he returned from Grenada. After praying about it for several months, he believed that God would have him work for the ministry. The ARMS board recently approved Jerry and Dawn as representatives. This is an answer to many years of prayer! Jerry has 27 years of pastoral experience in New York City. He looks forward to encouraging and helping pastors in the Carolinas and Georgia. He will also make new contacts and seek support for all aspects of the ARMS and Harbour Light ministry. You may contact him at JerryWalker@everlastingarms.org.

Harbour Light Christian Academy desperately needs a place to meet for next school year. The school is moving closer to obtaining government approval to issue diplomas, and more nationals are expressing interest in enrolling their children. The Lord appears to be providing some funds for a school building on the station property. Please join us in praying for the Lord's direction. A new school building by fall would be nearly miraculous! We serve a God that is on the move! As the process moves forward, we may need one or more teams this summer to help.

John and Karen McPherson are busy with an unforeseen issue. Tyronn, a young man in the church and that occasionally works at the station was recently hit by a SUV while riding a bicycle. The McPhersons are now ministering to both Tyronn and to his lost relatives.

Closer to home, I have been working on a new website for ARMS. Many younger people rely upon the Internet for basic information about most everything. We need a helpful site that showcases God's work through His servants at the Harbour Light and that provides related resources. There are many details to be worked out. Do pray for wisdom! The Steels are busily preparing for deputation ministry. Enclosed is their prayer card. I fully expect that we will see some expansion of the radio ministry once they are at the station. The Murphy's continue in deputation ministry and have recently purchased an RV to make travel easier. Arlene Cornelius looks forward to her 50th college reunion at Bob Jones University in March and then to returning to Carriacou in April. She recently purchased the airline tickets and is actively finishing her activities in the States.

Thank you for praying and for giving to the work! We serve a great God!

In Christ,

Dr. Doug Garland
